Defective Passenger Service. So far the arrangement for getting to Baltimore by the Edmondson line is not as satisfactory as under the former arrangement, by the Catonsville route, the cars running at longer intervals. Parties coming out from Baltimore Thursday night said they had to wait forty minutes on the street before a car came along. The suspension of cars between the Ca tonsville terminus and the Edmondson line, to Ellicott City, this week, was also an unaccountable and exasperating condition of things, passengers being obliged to walk the distance under a blazing hot sun. It is hoped the railway company will give the communities here the best possible passenger service now that the traffic seems to justify it.

THE PATAPSCO HUNT CLUB.

Number of Interesting Contests to be Held on the Fourth of July Near Hehes-Following the example of other hunt clubs, the Patapsco Hunt Club, of near Ilchester, Howard county, has arranged a program of interesting events to take place at the club's beautiful home at Middlebrook Farm, on the Fourth of July. The Patapsco Hunt Club, although organized but one year, is one of the most vigorous hunt clubs in this section Dr. and Mrs. Robert T. Petzold have of the country. It is located on properhunt club. There are seventy-one mem-Mr. Sommerfield Sollers, a deputy bers, all of whom are interested in the Fourth of July project.

The program of events contemplates a hurdle race, open to the members of the Patapsco Hunt Club; a steeplechase, nized hunt clubs; a race for farmers, open to Howard county horses, to be ridden by their owners, and "Jim Carney" races, that consist of an umbrella race, thread-a-needle race, spoon and egg race and nightgown race. There is to be no entrance-fee in the farmers' race, and two prizes are to be bung un-the first a saddle, and the second a bridle. The exact details of the farmers' race have not been decided on,

but as some splendid horseflesh is owned in Howard county, and the farmers have a dash of sporting proclivities, it is believed that it is to develop into one of the most interesting races on the card. The "Jim Carney" races will comprise a number of novelties, all with comedy as their basis. All of these events are to be held on horseback, and the riders are to furnish their own paraphernalia. The first of these novelties is the umorelia race. Each of the riders is to go t speed with a raised umbrella held in one hand by the extreme end of the handle. The rush of wind under such onditions creates such a pressure that it quite difficult to hold the umbrella, and he man who shall succeed in holding i the longest is to be declared the winner In the needle threading race a mounted roung man hands a needle and thread to

The Scarf Drill, a dance by seven girls in white dresses and different colored scarfs, was prettily and gracefully done and one of the best pieces given. The Famous Baby Show, by fourteen pink-robed and white-bonneted little ones with their infants, deserves special mention as does the pretty little dance, "The Birdies' Ball," by the same children. "Dr. Devine," a play, was 'ull of fun and well acted by Misses Gertrude Favour, Mildred DeLashmutt, Fanny Sprecher, Lelia Hepner, Grace Dudderan and Bertha Hobbs. A composition on America, by Miss Mildred DeLashmutt, showed thought and command of language and was well received. The teachers can but feel pride in the creditable way in which even the youngest children acquitted themselves. Th grounds and lawn surrounding the Doctor's home were beautifully lighted with Chinese lanterns. Here under the trees, on the small tables the ladies of the Sykesville Circulating Library dispensed ice cream, water ices and strawberries for the benefit of the library.
